THE CARRIER OF LADDERS
POEMS BY
W.S. MERWIN

LITTLE HORSE

You come from some other forest do you
little horse
think how long I have known these deep dead leaves
without meeting you

I belong to no one
I would have wished for you if I had known how what a long time the place was empty even in my sleep
and loving it as I did I could not have told what was missing what can I show you if you will stay or if you will come again I will not try to hold you I hope you will come with me to where I stand often sleeping and waking by the patient water that has no father nor mother
